Miss Annie Barber, Calgary, is spending a couple of weeks visiting at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hayes.

Is your subscription paid up?

Tomorrow, the 19th, will be observed throughout Canada as Peace Day. The local stores, Bank and Post Office will be closed all day.

Wednesday was just about as hot a day as one could wish for, if we were down in the tropics. The mercury came near to breaking out the top of the tube. By Thursday morn it had dropped to the bottom and the moth balls were shaken out of the winter clothes and fur coats. A few showers of rain fell during the day but the high wind no doubt kept the rain scattered.

The bulk of the crop is now past receiving any benefit from what rain may come this year, and the farmers, in this district, will again have to secure their seed from outside points, as they have been forced to do for the past two years.

The question of how to get enough feed to carry the stock over the winter months is already causing many farmers to worry.

Wanted, an editor who can read write and argue politics, and at the same time be funny, religious, scientific and historical at will, write to please everybody, know everything without asking or being told, always have something good to say about everybody else, live on wind and make more money than enemies. For such a man a good opening will be made (in the graveyard). He is too good to live.

H. McCarron shipped three cars of cattle and one car of hogs, to St. Paul, today.

There will be a display of fire works, in town tomorrow night, in celebration of Peace Day. The display will take place about nine o'clock.

There is some talk of forming a Ladies Auxiliary to the local branch of the G. W. V. A.

Messrs Horsch, Davis, Lucas, Cramer, H. Mathews and A. E. Mathews, attended a Masonic meeting in Provost on Wednesday night.

H. McCarron is shipping cattle every two weeks. If you have any to sell leave word at the Butcher Shop.

Mrs. Vanhorn and young son, of Lethbridge, are visitors at the home of Mrs. M. A. Vanhorn

ALERT ALTARIO

An interesting competition, in our school, was an original poster advertising War Thrift Stamps. The fortunate winners were Anna and Hanna Kallman, and Marion Smith. The sketches were all excellent, the teacher says, and many showed a real sense of humor.

The wires, etc., are here and soon the telephone men will link us up with city life.

We shall now be able to give Ye Ed our candid opinion of himself when he prints such a howler as "Danny Runtion says" when it should have been Dame Runtion!

Talking of entertaining strangers, two "green" ones from the "one-horse" land were comparing notes on the far-famed Canadian hospitality which is extolled and lauded ad nauseam in the emigration publications in England. This land is pictured as not only flowing with milk and honey, but one is given to understand that there is a warm welcome awaiting the strangers from a far country.

Said one lady "How did you find Canadian hospitality when you first came?" Said the cynical one in reply, "I did not find it at all, I'm still looking for it after many years of Western life. It has been my experience that the Canadian frosts are not only on the prairie but in the hearts of the people!"

Gentle readers, let us see to it that we keep the scriptures in deed and word and are given to hospitality lest it be said of us as a soldier boy expressed it in graphic words, "You have cold shoulders."

The largest gathering ever seen in this part of the country was the Soldiers' Reception at Compeer. All the world and his wife were there and the verdict was that "all things were very good." The baseball excited much interest, Loverna winning the last game from Sounding Creek. The tug-of-war showed that physically our neighbors can pull it over on us once in a while. The races were as usual the scene of great excitement amongst old & young. The most picturesque and interesting event was the presentation of the gold watches to the Compeer boys back from war. Capt. Batchelor, in a few well chosen words, expressed the people's sentiments of loving gratitude, and boys received the watches amidst great cheering.

All day there was delightful music by the Kerobrt. Band. In the evening a large company "tripped the light fantastic toe till the wee sma hours o' morn. We offer congratulations to the Ladies Aid on their excellently managed supper, and to the men of Compeer on the success that crowned their efforts.

Mrs. Nesbit and children, of Toronto, are visiting in Altario, the guests of Mrs. McLeod.

Last Wednesday was Sunday School Picnic day at Coats Lake when the Schools of the entire country side gathered to spend an old time picnic together.

Miss Dorothy Melvin, Compeer, is home again from school in Calgary, looking well.

Jack Ehaus and Fred Larsen are home from the front, looking well and smiling. Jack is the same old Jack; he confided to us that of all the places he had visited Bonnie Scotland was the best. We agree with you, Jack, there's no country like the land of the heather clad mountains, where the most hospitable people in the world live.

10 Peace is to be celebrated in our town on the great 19th. It is good to feel we are one with the world on that day and our little burg extends a hearty welcome to everyone to come and be joyful with us. Many attractions are offered, racing with several new stunts to make it attractive and novel, baseball, patriotic concert, and last but not least a Banquet in the Freight Sheds where the W. I. is providing the good things. Come and welcome one and all.

Note and Comment

TAXATION OF LAND
ACCORDING TO VALUEA Better System Than That Of Levying Taxes On An Acreage Basis

When a rate of taxation of about $2.00 per quarter section was the total tax required to be levied on the lands in the Province for Provincial or Municipal purposes, the fact that these taxes were levied on a flat rate, regardless of the value of the land, did not cause complaint, as while it was not a fair basis of taxation, the amount was so small that no particular hardship was caused, and the fact that a man owning a quarter section worth $1000 paid as large a tax as a man with a quarter section worth $4000 was not given much consideration. As the taxes increased the levying of same on an acreage was unfair and not levied in accordance with the ability to pay.

In considering the merits of any system of taxation, the matter must be approached from the standpoint that taxes should be paid according to the ability to pay, and there does not appear to be any sound argument against the system of levying taxes according to value, rather than on an acreage basis. This principle having been recognized in connection with taxes levied directly or indirectly for the benefit of the Province at large, the different Acts through which the Province derives revenue from taxes on lands were amended at the last session of the Legislature by legislation introduced by the Minister of Municipal Affairs, so that beginning with the year 1920, all Provincial taxes will be levied according to the value of the land, and not according to the area. That is all taxes levied on lands outside of organized School Districts under the Educational Tax Act, on all lands under the Supplementary Revenue Act, the Improvement District Act, and the Wild Lands Tax Act, will be levied according to the value of the land taxes. The only exception will be the taxation of lands leased from the Dominion Government, and in these cases the taxes will still be levied on an acreage basis, but as the rate is low it does not create any great hardship.

In preparation for this work, all lands outside of organized

Municipalities are now being valued under the direction of the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Municipal Districts which are not already levying their taxes according to land values, will be required to value all their lands for the purpose of taxation under the Supplementary Revenue Act next year.

The basis of taxation is the cash value of the land without improvements, and in working out this there are only three matters to be taken into consideration, namely:

- 1st—The nature of the soil.
- 2nd—The nature of the surface; that is, whether it is broken by ravines, coulees or timber and so on.
- 3rd—The distance of the land from a shipping point.

As the comparative values will only change under exceptional circumstances, such as a new railroad passing through the locality, it will be noted that once a value is fixed, there will not be very much change for some years. This being the case, provision has been made for a valuation by Municipal Districts only once in every five years, thus reducing the work and expense in levying taxes.

The first valuation under this scheme will be the valuation in 1920, the next in 1925, and so on. Provision has of course been made for the valuation in any year of land which becomes liable to taxation during that year, so that the fact that the general valuation is only made every five years, will not exempt land from taxation which becomes liable to assessment and taxation during any year other than that in which the general assessment is required to be made. Tax notices will issued each year.

While a change from an acreage system of taxation to one according to value will cause extra work, matters will soon adjust themselves and there should be no difficulty in administering a system of taxation along these lines. The fairness of taxation according to value will appeal to all fair minded people as a better system than the acreage system which makes the owner of poor generally a poor man, pay the same amount of taxes as the owner of good land, who is generally a wealthier man and better able to pay.

One of the main objections to taxation according to value has arisen from the fact that many land owners think that if taxes are levied according to value, the owner will have to pay taxes on the land value together with the improvements placed upon the land. Such, however, is not the case. All provisions in the laws of the Province in regard to taxation of farm land requires the valuation of these lands for taxation purposes to be made on a raw land basis and there is no tax on the increased value of lands because of the improving of these lands by the expenditure of labor or money. That is, a man who improves his farm by cultivation, building of fences and putting up of buildings is not punished for doing so by having to pay taxes on such improvements. Raw land values being equal, the owner of unimproved land has just as large a tax to pay as the man who improves his farm and if he is making no use of his land, has, in addition, to pay a Wild Lands Tax.

Basin Lake School

At the ratepayers meeting held July 5th, vigorous criticisms were made on the Secty. Trustee and Building, and of course every critic could have done everything in very much better style. However, it was a good tempered crowd on the whole, and some complaints were justified.

A strong resolution was moved by Messrs Gudim and McCulloch for the Secty to send to the Official Trustee.

School was opened last Monday with 18 scholars enrolled.

The Outstanding Product of a Large Manufacturing House

FOUR large factories and five distributing warehouses stand back of Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead.

Every step in its manufacture is closely watched by chemical engineers nothing is left undone which would help to maintain the quality of the world's finest white lead.

Brandram's Genuine
B.B. White Lead

is different from any other white lead. To begin with, it is corroded by several secret processes which are then merged into a pigment of marvellous smoothness. This pigment is ground no less than five times, first under huge stones, and finally between heavy steel rolls. In this grinding process, it is made into a pulp by being mixed with pure refined linseed oil made in our own linseed oil mills.

Whenever you paint, use Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead if you mix your own paint. If you want to save the labor of mixing you can ensure the use of this quality pigment only by getting B-H "English" Paint.
